Replying to a Message Using Outlook 2003

To Reply to a Message:

1) Select the message that you want to reply to by clicking on it. It will be highlighted.

2) Click the Reply button to send a response to the Sender. If the original message was address to more than one person, click Reply All if you want to send the reply to all of the original recipients.

3) Type your response, then click Send.