

Dear Parents,

Now that your child is in Early Literacy, our first ten sessions will be “Roaming Around the Known.” During this time, I will be getting to know your child and building his/her confidence as a reader. From the knowledge I gain over these first ten sessions, I can customize lessons that will be designed specifically for your child. Each day’s lessons will be built on what happened the day before.

To ensure your child’s continued progress in reading, it is essential that you take time to listen to your child read every night. A special homework folder has been made for your child’s Early Literacy books. Please be sure to return the books each morning. We share these books with other children and their families so it is very important for your child to establish the responsibility of getting the materials returned each school day.

Thank you for your efforts to assist your child in learning to read and write.

Sincerely,

Early Literacy
Intervention Teacher
