

Brianna
Mountain Solo by Jeanette Ingold

My favorite part of the book was the flash-back when Frederik , Maureen , and Katharina were living on the plains of South Dakota and when I read about Frederick playing the violin for his daughter who could not play because of a accident around the mine .

Mountain Solo is about a girl named Tess who lives in Montana and starts playing the violin when she was a very little. Then her mom decides that Montana is holding her music career back so they pack up and move to New York. There she tries out to get in a music school for the weekends. She got better a her violin and decide to enter a music festival. There she messed up and decided to give up her violin. After the festival she went to Montana for the summer and there she meets Katharina. Katharina wants to know about her past and so does Meg and Tess. Later Tess goes camping with her dad, her other mom, and her sister Amy. There Tess realizes that she loves music and she is going to make her own decision instead of her mom .So Tess will keep playing the violin.

The main character is Tess . Tess is a child prodigy at the violin. She usually lets her mom make her own decisions. Tess is a go- getter type of person. She will never give up at anything to make her violin playing better.

I think this book was hard follow. It had a lot of flash-backs. I personally did not like the book.
